In this, the 1962-1963 edition of The Rogue, it is our aim to portray to the students of Ashland Senior High the traditions and standards established by alumni and present day students. We have used phrases taken from the Alma Mater and other school songs to represent these traditions. We have chosen a red cover because we feel that each graduating class should have an annual featuring school colors. A full color picture of the school graces the endsheets. We, the 1962-1963 annual staff, sincerely hope that you, the students of Ashland High, enjoy this year's annual.

. . . And the gold and blue is changing to a white and crimson glow. . ."

Campus Boasts New Addition

Claudia Everett and Jan Susee chat in front of the Industrial Arts Building, a new addition to the Ashland High School campus. This new building houses the shop, arts, crafts, and mechanical drawing classes. The concrete brick building features large, airy, well-lighted rooms.

The new addition has relieved the crowded conditions which formerly existed in shop classes. Also there is room for the school to offer several new courses.

Alan Kiser, Dave Dunson, Bob Redding, Frank Millett, Jay Feagan, Darrell Bohn, Steve Bornett, Clinton Wolford, Bill Robinson, and Keith Acuff work industriously in woodshop class.

"...For honest labor and for learning we stand. . ."

Administrative Officials

School board members, from left to right: Mr. Dave Fortmiller, Dr. Daniel Engle, Mr. Jack Williams, and Mr. Robert O'Hara, consider school business pointed out by Mr. Howard Wiley. The school board meets once a month to discuss school business and policies concerning the operation of the Ashland schools. They also call special meetings when they find it necessary to act on pressing business matters between regular board meetings.

Mr. Stanley Jobe

For five years Mr. Stanley Jobe has been superintendent of the Ashland Public Schools. Among his many duties are those of employing personnel and preparing the budget for the schools as well as directing the general curriculum. It is also his responsibility to see that the schools operate within the budget. Mr. Jobe makes final decisions in administrative policy and deals with public relations.

Mr. Verne Speirs, assistant superintendent, pauses for a moment during a busy day. One of his more important duties is arranging curriculum for the schools in Ashland. He also works closely with department heads and teachers to decide on the materials and methods to be used in the schools.

Guide School Policies

The new Dean of Girls this year is Mrs. Margaret Zwick (Mama Zwick) who is, to use one of her favorite phrases, "a refugee from sunny California." In addition to her counseling duties, Mrs. Zwick is the leader of the Humanities Seminar.

Mr. Oscar "Bud" Silver is Dean of Boys and vice-principal. He is also athletic director for the Ashland Junior High and the Ashland Senior High Schools.

Mrs. Margaret Zwick

Mr. Bud Silver

Our principal, Mr. Gaylord Smith combines good judgment and a sense of fairness in his work with faculty and students. Although he runs the school with an "iron hand," his pleasing personality makes him well-liked and respected.

Office Staff Performs School Duties

Helping to keep the school running smoothly and efficiently by acting as "girl Fridays," the office staff is from left to right: Mrs. Barbara Wight, office assistant; Jane Clark; Lynn Silverwood; Mrs. Jacqueline Lewis, office secretary; Marsha Winkler; Linda Bidema; Barbara Lawrence.

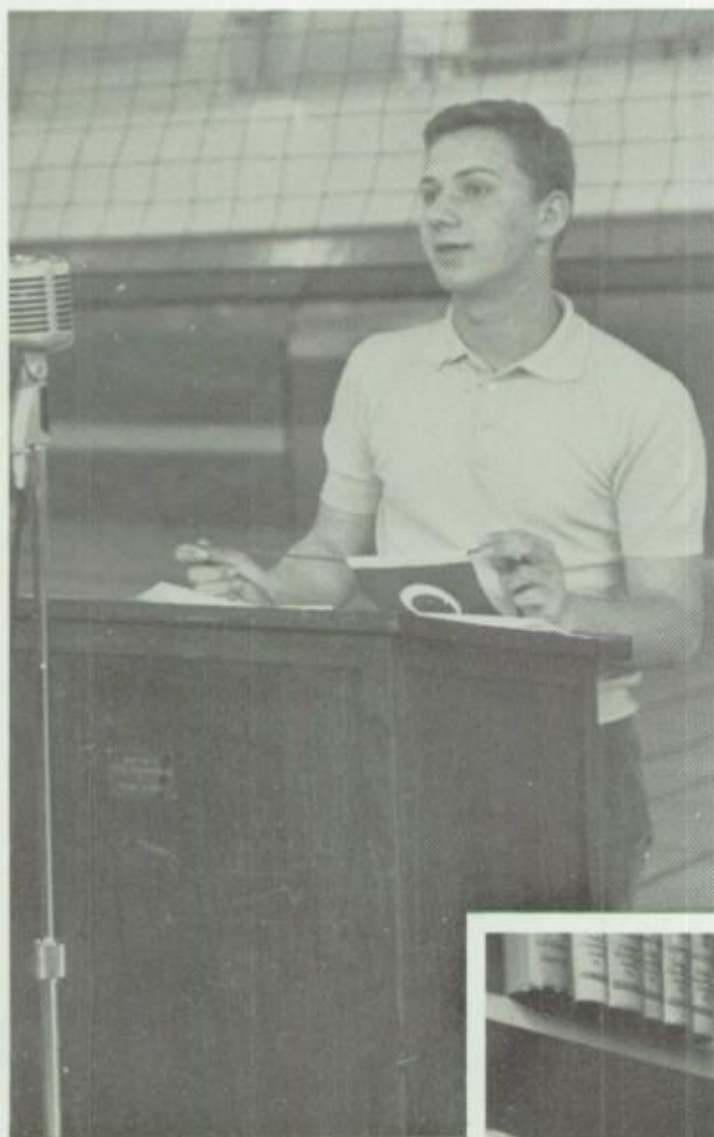

New office assistant at Ashland High, Mrs. Barbara Wight puts grades on permanent records.

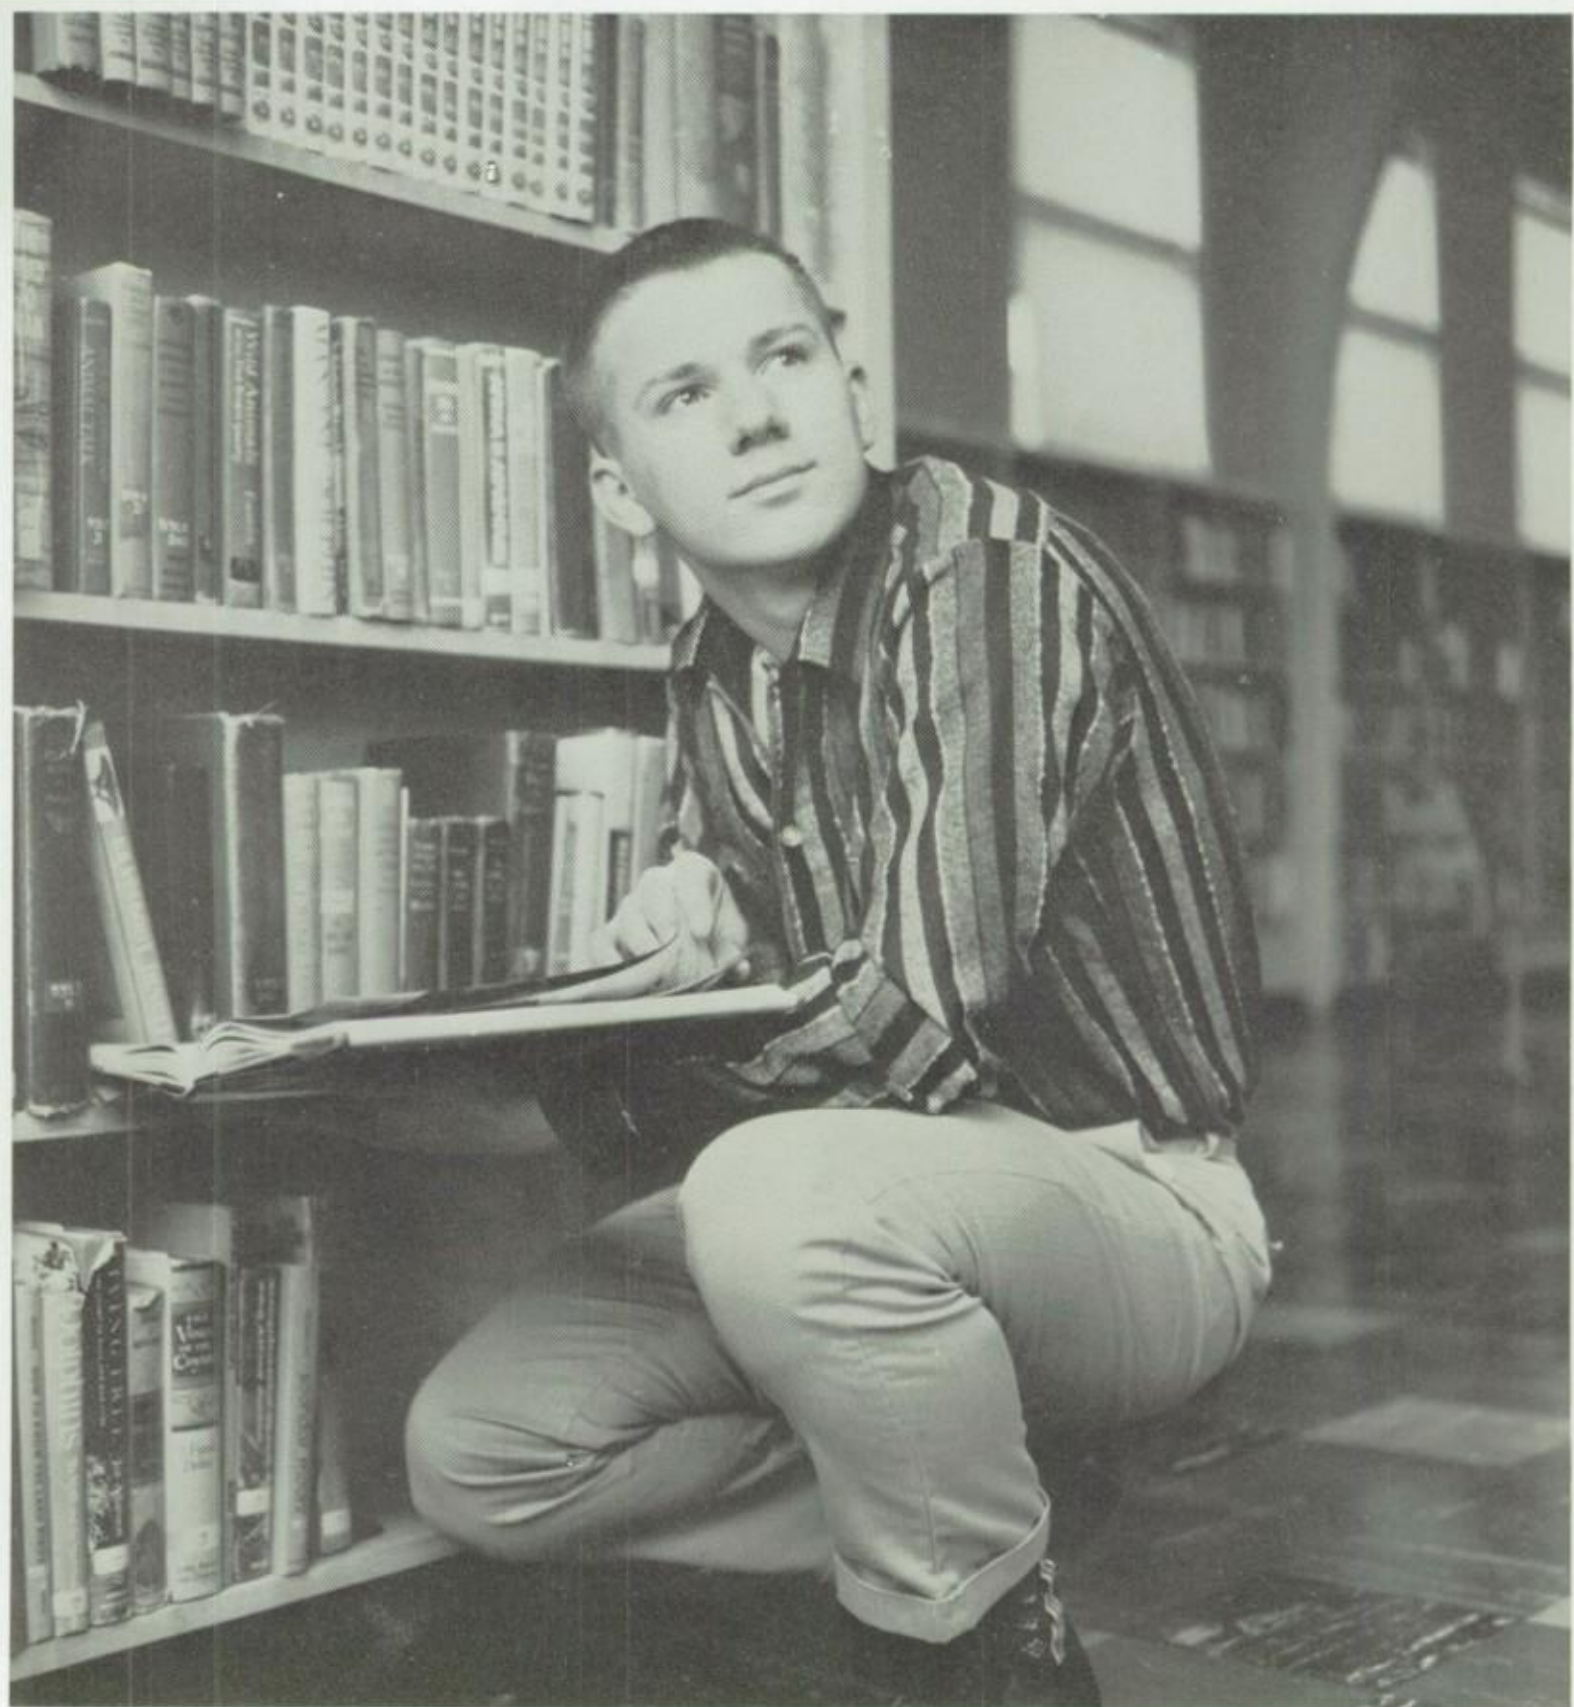

Busy as usual, Mrs. Jacqueline Lewis, office secretary, takes a telephone message.

AHS Welcomes Turkish Student

This year our exchange student was a young man from Istanbul, Turkey. Ali Saner, who lived with the Kreisman family, had a talent known to all Seniors—he was champion hog caller of the S. S. S. Day outing. In track Ali was a shot putter. The local chapter of the American Field Service and the Ashland Rotary Club sponsored Ali's sojourn in Ashland. With his entertaining articles in Rogue News, Ali has contributed much enjoyment to his fellow students and has given them an insight as to what life in Turkey is like. He also spoke to many organizations in the Rogue Valley.

Student Body Officers Combine

Mike Cotton
AHS Student Body President

In addition to serving as representatives of Ashland High School, the 1962-1963 student body officers also were busy in school helping to make the year a success.

President Mike Cotton presided at the student council meetings and served as master of ceremonies at the various assemblies and programs. In addition to co-ordinating student body activities, Mike was also in charge of the all-school variety show.

First Vice-President Rick Pierce co-ordinated the various clubs and organizations and presided at Inter-Club Council. Rick was also in charge of the club-sponsored publicity during Pep Week and before home games.

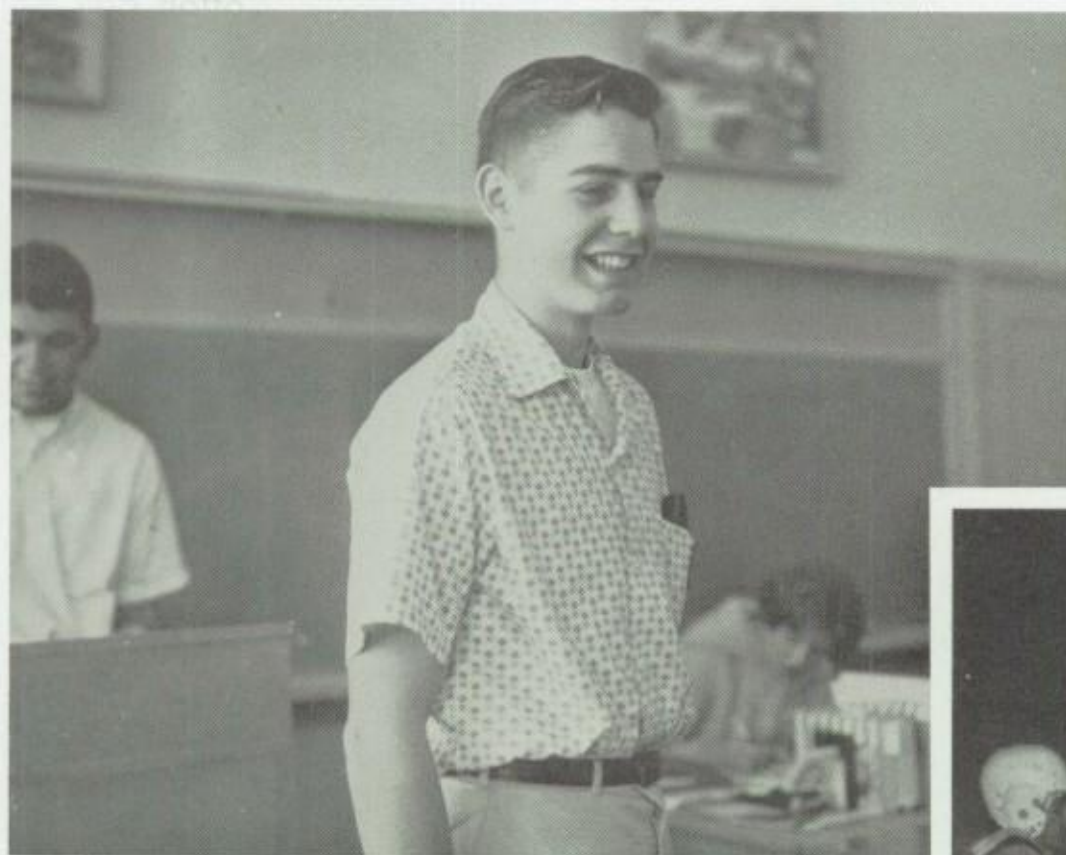

Efforts for Successful Year

Chosen by the faculty as the outstanding bookkeeping student, Nancy Latimer was student body treasurer for 1962-63.

Secretary Carol Bjork kept the student body records and was responsible for the school activity calendar in the study hall.

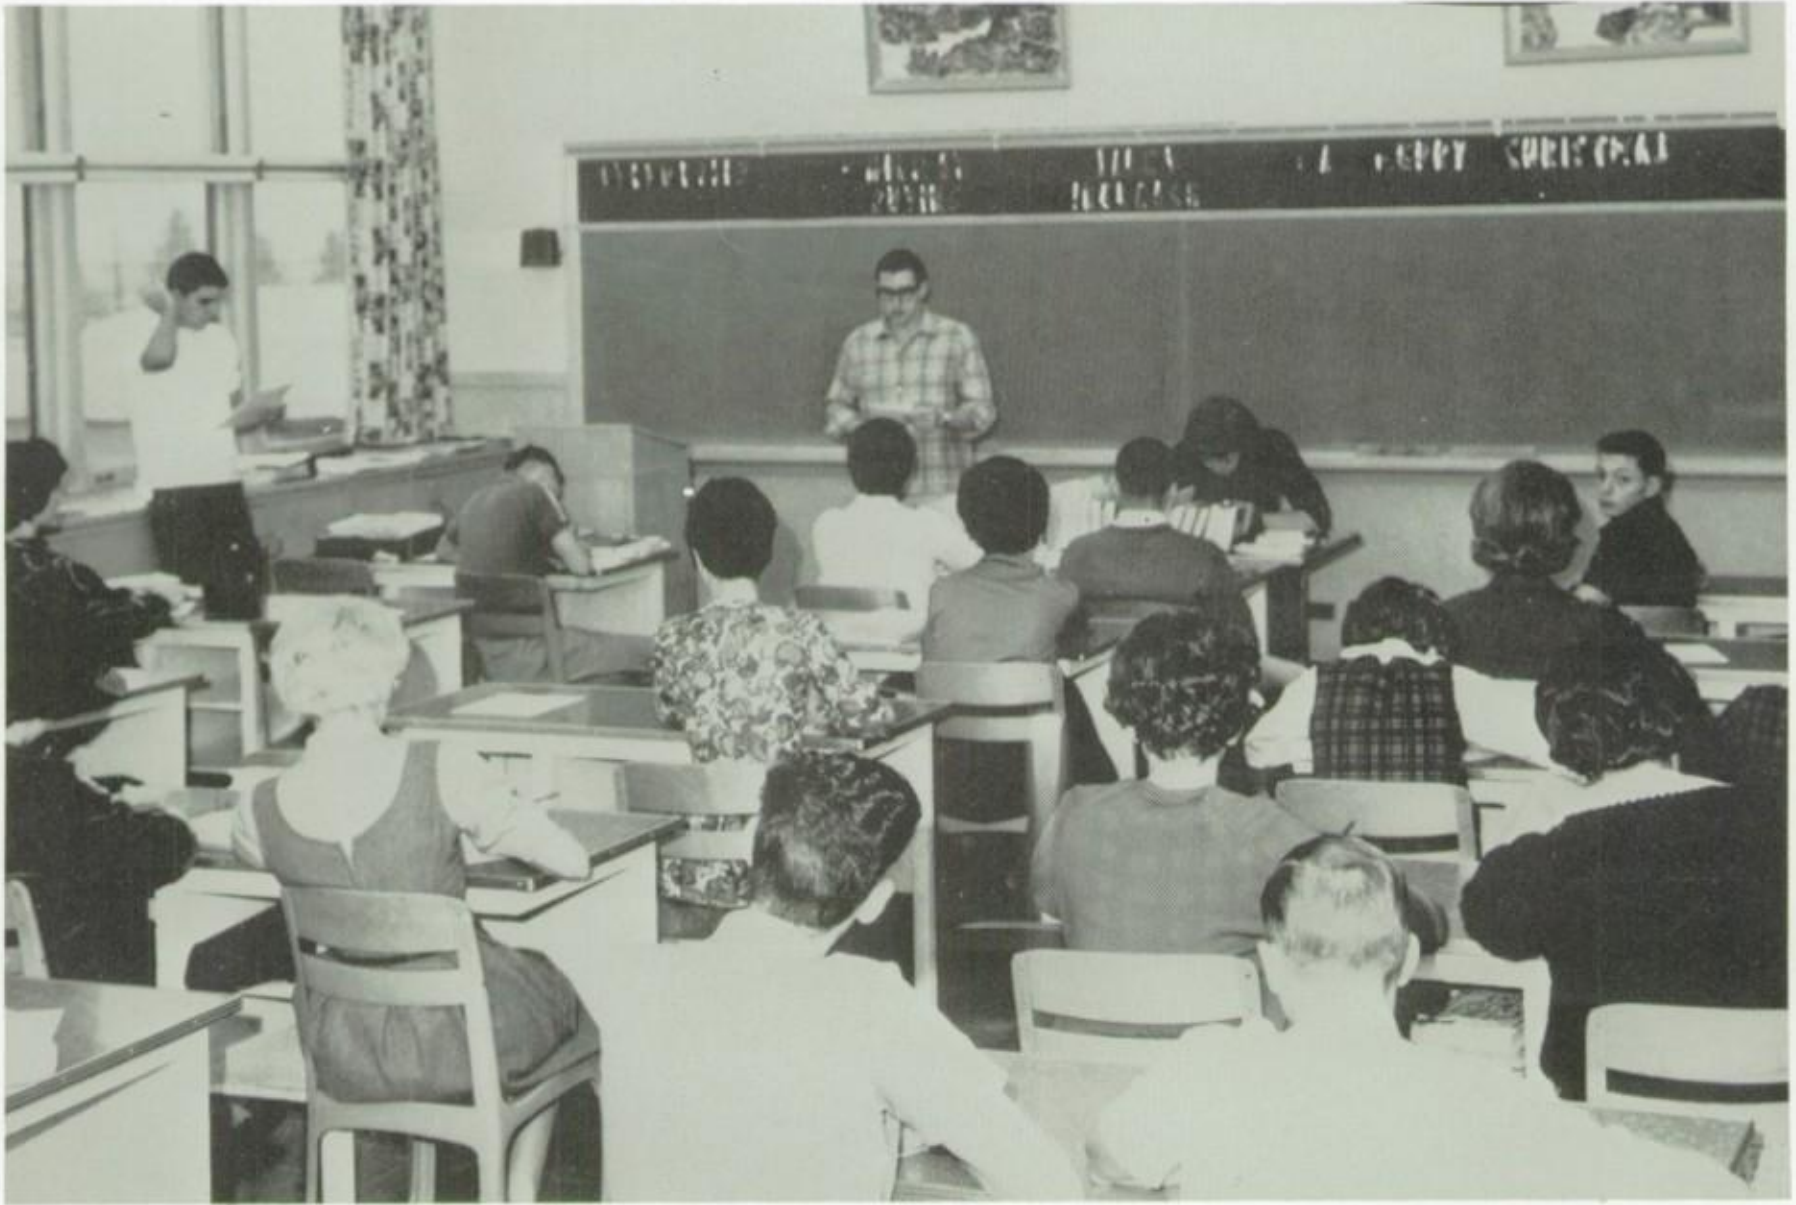

Above, Scott Roberts served as second vice-president and was in charge of the evaluation committee.

To the right, having served as a yell leader for three years, Kay Moore is well-qualified for the position of yell queen. She presided over pep assemblies and was responsible for keeping up school spirit.

Councils Supervise School Affairs

Student Council, under the gavel of Mike Cotton, student body president, meets Monday mornings to plan and discuss the activities for the week. Each council member is an elected representative from a first period class to which the member reports after the Monday meetings. Mike Cotton and council members listen as Charles Calhoun makes a report.

Student Body Vice-President, Rick Pierce, directs the meetings of Inter-Club Council. This council, composed of the presidents of the various clubs and organizations in the school, meets on Friday mornings.

Two busy seniors, Carol Ann James and Craig Pennington, have managed to maintain two of the highest grade point averages in the class, while participating in various school activities. All through high school Carol Ann has demonstrated her musical ability by playing in the band, and she has been in the orchestra for the last two years. In her senior year, Carol Ann has been a debater. She is also a member of National Honor Society and President of Girls' League.

Craig Pennington is one of the most active seniors in the class of '63. For two years Craig has been a member of debate and National Honor Society. He was one of the American Field Service finalists. In his senior year, Craig participated in the program for the Gifted and Able Students at Southern Oregon College and in the Humanities Seminar. During his junior year, Craig was president of his class. Additional activities include Chess Club, Student Council, Inter-Club Council, Spring Play, and Senior Class Play.

Nancy Latimer and Tod Hess pause to discuss future plans. As well as being a star basketball player, a track and cross country participant, Tod finds time to serve as band president and vice-president of National Honor Society in his senior year. Tod has also held the positions of third and fourth vice-president of the Student Council.

Nancy transferred to Ashland High from Phoenix during her junior year. In her senior year she was treasurer of the Student Body. She is an active member of Future Teachers of America. Chosen by faculty and student council, Nancy was honored by the Ashland Business and Professional Women's Club as Girl of the Six Weeks.

With Happy Memories

Jane Hennick and Mike Cotton, two active presidents, enjoy the fresh air while discussing their various activities. Jane, president of the senior class, devotes most of her time to class projects. As a junior she was class secretary, a representative to Girls State, and a participant in Student Government Day. Other activities include Thespians, National Honor Society, and debate.

Mike has the honor of being the Student Body President. Because of his participation in football, basketball, and track, he is a member of the Lettermen's Club. During his junior year, Mike was vice-president of the junior class and an American Field Service finalist. For two years, Mike has attended Saturday classes for gifted and able students held at Southern Oregon College.

Both students devoted Monday nights to the Humanities Seminar.

Carol has maintained a high grade point average and has many achievements attributed to her. She held class offices during her freshman and sophomore years. During her junior and senior years, Carol has been in National Honor Society, debate, dramatics, and Student Council. She has also served as secretary of the Student Body and was a finalist in the American Field Service program. Carol attended Saturday classes for the Able and Gifted Student at S.O.C. for two years and participated in the Humanities Seminar.

While participating in many outside activities Jim has maintained a perfect scholastic record throughout high school. Some of his honors are the Best Chemistry Student award, quarter-finalist and winner of a Letter of Commendation from the National Merit Scholarship test. Jim also won the Future Engineers of America contest, took third place in the Advanced Math Test, and represented Ashland High in the 1962 National Council of Teachers of English Achievement Awards contest. He has been on the Varsity basketball team, joined the Lettermen's Club, and he has been president of National Honor Society. Jim also found time to be a member of the Ashland High band and to participate in Chess Club.

Carol Bjork and Jim Lamb rest from an active schedule to discuss some of their many activities.

Bev Hartford and Howard Johnson pause during a busy day to look over a book and also to discuss their activities. Bev used her musical talent in the Mixed Chorus and the Girls' Chorus for the last three years of high school. During her junior and senior years, Bev served as the head of Flag Girls. Bev was a member of the Girls' Recreational Association for three years, and she was vice-president of the group in her senior year.

Howard has proven his ability in athletics. Since his freshman year, Howard has participated in football, basketball, and track. He earned a freshman letter, junior varsity letter and a varsity letter. In his senior year he served as president of the Lettermen's Club. During his freshman and sophomore years, he held class offices.

The window in Ashland High's library provides a wide-scope view for Sharon O'Keefe and Dale Tepper. Sharon served as yell queen during her freshman year. For the next three years she was also a junior varsity and varsity yell leader. During her sophomore year, Sharon was a member of Flag Girls. As a junior, Sharon was a princess in the Cupid's Ball Court.

Dale has been an active participant in such sports as track, football, and varsity basketball. For his part in these sports he became eligible to join Lettermen's Club in his junior year.

Sharyn Roderick and Jim Smith check some notes for their next class. Sharyn has devoted much time towards class projects throughout high school. During her junior and senior years, she was a member of the annual staff. As a senior, she was editor of The Rogue. Sharyn also attended the Saturday classes for the Able and Gifted Student at S.O.C.

Jim also attended Saturday classes during his last two years of high school. His school activities include Science Club, chorus, and National Honor Society. Jim played football for four years and has been a member of the Lettermen's Club of which he is secretary-treasurer.

Yell Leaders Enhance

Kay Moore, Yell Queen

During the student body elections in the spring, varsity yell leaders are chosen. They must have a G.P.A. of 2.5 or better to try out before the student body. After being elected to the squad, they practice all summer and into the fall. The yell leaders attend all home games, almost all out-of-town games, and conduct pep assemblies. In order to buy uniforms, they sponsor summer dances.

Upperclass Girls Defeat Sophs, 12-6

Sandy Roll, sophomore, tries for extra yardage during the girls' football game, but is stopped short by an unidentified upperclassman.

Sponsored jointly by the G.R.A. and the sophomore class, a girls' touch football game was held at the high school on the night of October 16. The two opponents were a team of sophomore girls and a team composed of juniors and seniors. The upperclassmen trounced the sophs 12-6. The upperclassmen making touchdowns were Bev Hartford and Nancy Raspone, co-captains. The soph touchdown was made by Suzanne Gwaltney.

End-of-Summer Party Features Yearbooks

Since the adoption of fall delivery, the Rogue annual is issued to students in the early fall before the beginning of school. Fall delivery has enabled the yearbook staff to include the prom, all spring sports, and graduation activities without issuing a supplement. At a party in which free cokes are featured, the annual staff distributes yearbooks.

Amid much noise, chatter, and confusion, students received their 1962 yearbooks.

Sharyn Roderick and Mary Paul Workman prepare pictures of graduating seniors for return to their owners.

Dan Lewis and Cloma Zupan prepare to partake of free cokes, dispensed by Mrs. Trost.

Sophomores Traditionally Welcomed

Each year at a dance the juniors officially welcome the sophomore class. Traditionally this dance is the first one of the new school year. This year dancers enjoyed live music.

The large group of dancers at the right reflects the varied attitudes of the students who attend Ashland High dances. Students show contentment, ennui, and no reaction whatsoever.

"The gist of twist lies chiefly in the wrist?" These two couples, Marvin Morris and Helen Colwell, Billie Jean Collins and her partner, are deeply engrossed in the execution of this novel dance.

Karen Wood and Mike Cotton discover that dancing is not without its little woes. Mike grimaces from concentration on the intricacies of the dance and is confronted by the problem—what to do next? Karen gamely tries to follow his lead.

Queen Jody Reigns

Homecoming Queen Jody MacCollister, with escort Steve Langer, reigned over the various Homecoming activities.

Homecoming activities began at the Pep Assembly when the princesses were presented to the student body. To raise spirit for the game with Crater that night, after school there was a noise parade through town. In the parade were floats, worked on for many hours by the classes and clubs. Also participating were the band, flag girls and yell leaders. The oldest Ashland High graduate living in town, Mr. Henry Galey, was specially honored in the parade.

During half-time at the game, Charles Calhoun crowned the queen. Also the band and flag girls performed. After the game a dance for alumni and students at the Junior High Cafeteria topped off the festivities.

Yell leaders, Sharon O'Keefe, Kay Moore, and Sandy Hamilton, arouse spirit as they ride in the noise parade.

Winning first prize for club floats was the entry of the flag girls.

"Vision of Victory" was the theme for this year's Homecoming Parade. The Student Council picked the theme after the ideas were submitted by AHS students.

Featuring a miniature drive-in theater, the senior class float took second-place honors. Seniors on the float are Pat Nisle, Marilyn Morris, Sharon Greenwade, Jack Aring, Dan Baker, and Nancy Latimer.

The sophomore class float, third place winner, featured a giant pair of spectacles supported by the J. V. Yell-leaders, Betty Schweibert, Suzanne Gwaltney, Pat Lorton, and Pam Kaegi.

Ashland Senior High Band and the majorettes, under the direction of Mr. Raoul Maddox, perform at half-time during the Homecoming game.

Making their debut in new winter uniforms, the Flag Girls march onto the field to join the half-time ceremonies of the Crater-Ashland Homecoming game.

Sadie Stomp Enjoyed

Displaying their trophies for the most effective and unusual costumes are Mike McGuire and Linda Nicholson, Lil' Abner and Daisy Mae; Kandy Korthase and Jon Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. Dogpatch; and Terry Skibby, most outstanding individual.

Louie Willits peers between the elbows of carefree dancers.

Relaxing on a handy bale are Jeff Trost and Wayne Gripp.

By All Who Attend

Monday's laundry floats above dancers who slide on a slippery, generously hayed floor.

Linda Thomas assists Ralph Fitzgerald and Sandy Scholer while they are "picking out the ring" before they take the fatal plunge into matrimony.

Sponsored annually by the Junior class, the Sadie Hawkins features one of the largest attendances of any dances. Live music helped this year's Sadie to be wild and "stompy" and more enjoyable than ever. Decorations of bales of hay and clothes lines full of Monday washing, created an effective "Dog-patch" atmosphere.

Tired revelers fix their glassy gaze on dancers who have more stamina. Marvin Morris bites his lip; Pat Lorton stares; Connie Felger and Jan Susee are engrossed in each other. Tod Hess tips his hat to an unidentified lady.

Comedy Selected for Spring Play

Students presented Meet Me in St. Louis, a comedy in three acts by Sally Benson, at an afternoon performance for the student body and at night on May 17. The plot concerns four sisters and a brother who do not wish to move from St. Louis to New York. As a result, a chain of hilarious events occur.

Christmas Activities

Crowned queen of the 1962 Christmas Ball, Teresa Krug, "Miss Ideal Girl of Ashland High," reigned over a fairyland kingdom of Christmas trees and snow. The Christmas Ball is sponsored each year by Girls' League. Carol Ann James, Girls' League president, supervised the preparation of the dance.

Smiling "Ideal Girl" Teresa Krug and her escort, John Reid, were accompanied by junior candidate Marcy Tretsvan and senior candidate Karen Wood with their escorts.

Highlight Festive Season

A joint production by the orchestra and chorus climaxed this year's Christmas season. Each year these two musical groups under the direction of Mr. Bernard Windt present a musical Christmas program. This year there were new additions to the program, organ and harpsichord accompaniments played by Sue Conner. Most of the selections presented were sacred Christmas music. Decorations made by Mrs. Trost and the art classes accented the festive atmosphere.

A poster made by Sami Everett illustrates the theme of Pep Week.

Assemblies Entertain Students

Sponsored by the National School Assemblies program, Mr. William Willett presented "Bazaar in India." He uses Kay Moore for a model on whom he drapes an Indian sari.

Rated excellent by the Student Council, the Mississippians, a group of Negro folk singers, presented one of the most enjoyable programs this year.

Frederic Sjobiarn, pianist and humorist, performed at one of the musical assemblies.

Lieutenant Pike, a police officer, presented a safety program.

Variety Show Greeted

The annual variety show of the year consisted of the combined talents of the student body and the faculty. After long hours of practice, A Diller A Dollar or With Jim and Joan at the Penny Arcade was presented on April 5th and 6th.

The "Happiness Twins,"

Mrs. Windt, Mrs. Simon, Mrs. Susee, Miss Rymes, Mrs. Converse, Mrs. Sohler, and Mrs. Trost were among the faculty women performers dancing to the "Graceful Grecian Bend."

Dances Dominate the

The various dances held at AHS this spring included Flirtations Unlimited in February, the Mardi Gras in March, the Twirp Dance in April, and the Election Dance in May. All of these dances were held in the school cafeteria, and live music was furnished. The decorations for these dances challenged the ability and imagination of the students.

Stately Pagoda Highlights

The royal court for the Junior-Senior prom are Princess Jane Hennick and escort Mike Cotton; Princess Linda Weber and her escort Darrell Bohn; Prom Queen Karen Wood and escort Gene Cronin; Princess Carol Bjork and escort Jim Lamb; Princess Kay Moore and her escort, Ron Scholer.

Towering toward the ceiling, a Chinese pagoda graces a miniature garden, complete with a fish pond and bridge.

Featuring red, gold, and black decorations, the annual Junior-Senior Prom was held in Britt Center on May 11. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Prom Queen, Karen Wood. The four centers of attraction were a pagoda and fish-pond, a Japanese lantern, a gate of honor, and Chinese vases. These decorations added to the decor which was fitting for the theme "In An Oriental Garden." Sophomore girls, dressed in orange oriental shifts with black trimming, served punch and cake and also checked the guests' wraps.

Today, the Dream

One hundred thirty-six graduates solemnly sit and listen as Craig Pennington delivers his salutatory address at the seventy-second annual commencement exercises at Ashland High.

After donning caps and gowns, Tod Hess, Bruce Bamforth, Bruce Mayben, Steve Watts, Jim Smith, and Frank Willits anxiously consult programs and discuss post-graduation plans prior to the graduation ceremonies.

Tomorrow, the Fulfillment

At the upper right, graduates file onto the stage, then walk forth to receive their diplomas—visible proof of completion of four years of high school.

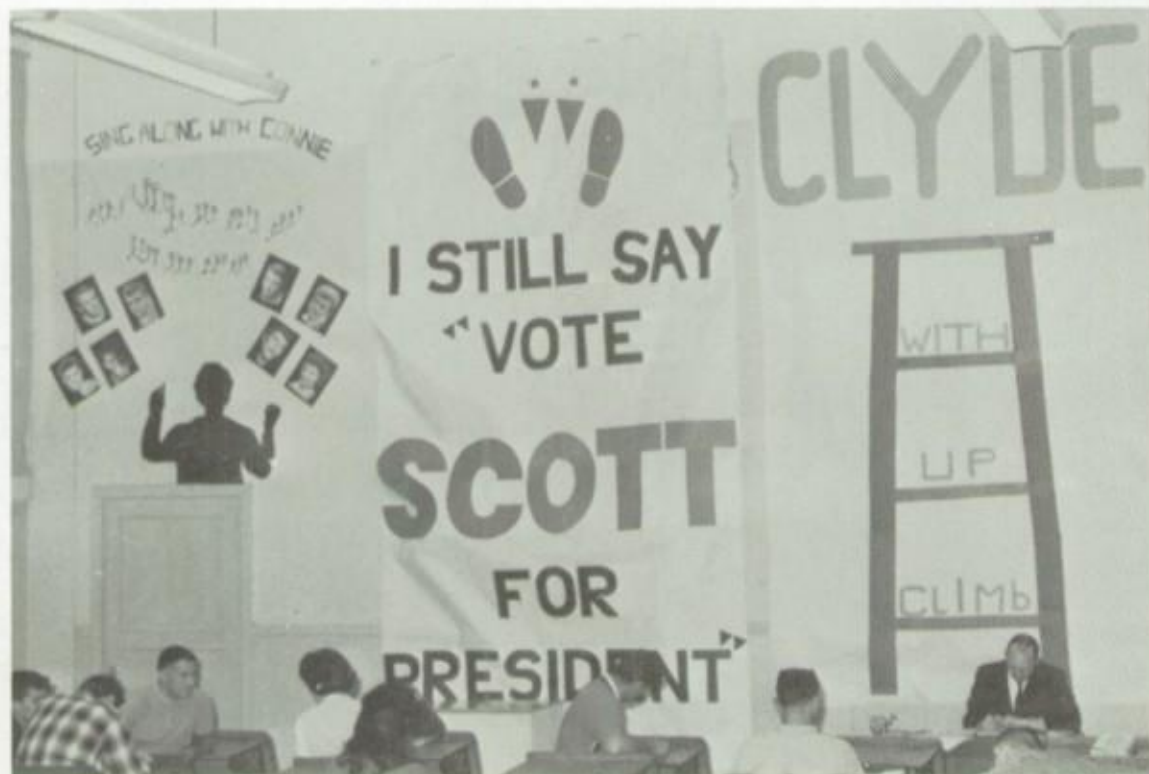

After the formal ceremonies were over, parents and friends surged forward to congratulate freshly graduated seniors who had lined the gymnasium at the conclusion of the program.

First Girl Elected ASB President

On April 26 the students of Ashland High voted for student body officers for 1963-1964. During the week preceding election day, the candidates campaigned. Election results were announced that night at a dance. The following Monday there was a revote for president and first vice-president.

Mike Cotton gives instructions to Dan Moore, Rick Oliver, and Carol Hunter as Jim Smith, Rick Pierce, Nancy Latimer, and Charles Hillestad perform election duties.

Brightly colored signs decorated the halls and study hall, during election week. Each candidate was allotted a certain number of signs and a space in the study hall.

The candidates for student body officers with their campaign managers sit in front of the student body during the campaign assembly.

and
A.H.S.

Chosen by their classmates to be Mr. and Miss Ashland High School, Gale Tepper and Kay Moore are two outstanding seniors. Tall, charming Gale is a three year letterman and a very personable young man. Kay, animated and vivacious, served as Yell Queen for the '62-'63 school year. She gained her experience as yell leader in her junior and sophomore years. These active students received the highest honors their fellow seniors can bestow.

Outstanding Students Receive

The faculty chose the following as Girl of the Six Weeks to represent AHS at the Business and Professional Women's Club of Ashland. Seated: Carol Bjork, Nancy Latimer, and Jane Hennick. Standing: Lonna Baize, Sharyn Roderick, and Claudia Everett. From this group the BPW club chose Claudia Everett as Girl of the Year.

Above, John Siebert's winning the regional Facit Typewriter Contest made him eligible to compete in the National Finals in New York. His prize was a Facit Portable typewriter. At New York he placed fifth in the nation.

To the left, Nan Hester received the trophy for being the Outstanding Senior Girl in G.R.A. Barbara Barry won the Girls' League Scholarship for her service to the organization.

Recognition at Awards Assembly

Chosen by the faculty Jane Hennick and Betty Martin (below) attended Girls State at Willamette University in 1962. Chuck Hillestad and Rick Pierce (kneeling) and Ron Whillock and Chuck Calhoun (standing) represented AHS at Boys State at Oregon State University in 1962.

Recipients of the Elks' Leadership Contest and the Elks' Scholarship Contest are: (seated from left to right) Kay Moore, third place in Leadership; Jane Hennick, first place in Leadership and first place in Most Valuable Student Contest; Betty Martin, second place in Most Valuable Student Contest; Carole Ann Janes, third place in Most Valuable Student Contest; and Claudia Everett, second place in Leadership.

Students Receive Awards

Scott Roberts, Marcy Tretsven, John Reid, and Charles Moore were the Ashland High School band members chosen to represent Ashland High School in the All-State Band.

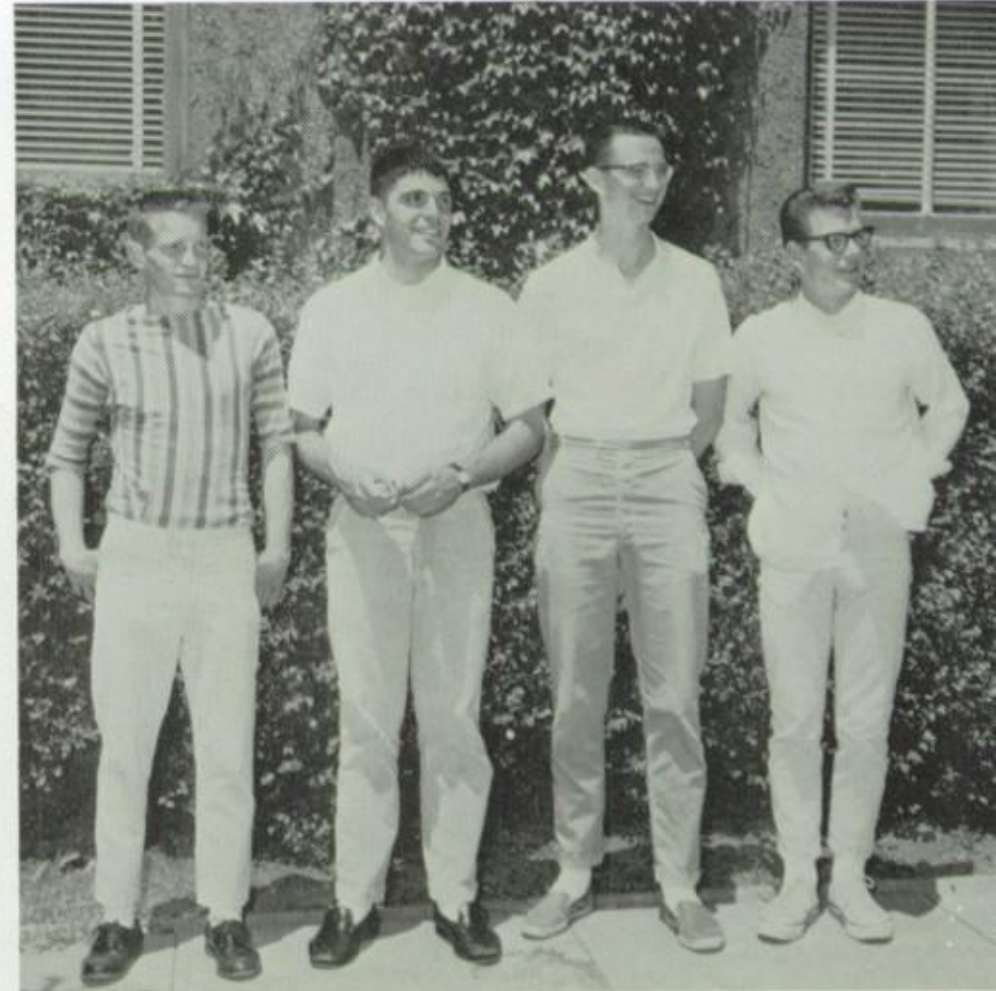

In a vote cast by the band members, Gene Slade was chosen the most outstanding band member for his contributions to the band throughout his four years of high school.

Bill Tilford, Jam Lamb, Bill Berninghausen, Betty Martin and Kathy Rucker placed in the finals of a national Spanish test which was taken by all students of Spanish II, III, and IV.

Gerald Brown, Mike Cotton, Jim Lamb, and Tom Huff received recognition for their outstanding contributions in athletics.

Staff Produces Traditional Yearbook

Caught in a rare pose of all members working at once, the annual staff shows some of the varied tasks required to produce a yearbook. Clockwise are Mary Paul Workman, Doree Woodell, Kathy Tilford, Jan Susee, Claudia Everett, Sharyn Roderick, Lucy Keating, Mrs. Sohler, Linda Wells and Betty Martin.

Editor-in-chief Sharyn Roderick stamps pictures and marks the page numbers on the pictures. Sharyn planned the yearbook and directed the work of the staff. Claudia Everett, art editor, to the left, planned page layout. Mrs. Sohler, advisor, checked copy and exerted a restraining force on the staff. Copy-editor Doree Woodell and Personality Director Mary Paul Workman "rack" their brains to produce some inspiring copy. Typist Betty Martin has the harrowing task of typing copy on the finished copy sheet.

Debaters Place Third in Sweepstakes at Linfield

Returning with six first places, four seconds, and three third place awards, the Ashland High debate squad obtained third place in the sweepstakes category at the Linfield College debate tournament. Standing are trophy winners Charles Hillestad, Radio; Tom Reid, Interview; Trudee Lewis, Salesmanship; Scott Roberts, Salesmanship; and Dave White, Debate. Seated with their trophies are Jane Hennick, Interview, and Carol Ann James, Interview.

April Lewis, Charles Moore, and Mr. Lewis are the last to enter the bus leaving for the Marshfield tournament.

Students Publish School News

The major task of the Journalism Class is to publish the Rogue News which includes making up the pages, selecting the events to be covered, and doing the hundred and one other related tasks.

Journalism, however, isn't all work. The students find time to have hayrides and out-of-school parties.

Quill and Scroll Honors Journalists

Quill and Scroll, a national honorary for journalism students, accepts for membership on the recommendation of faculty advisors staff members of the school publications — the newspaper and yearbook.

For the second year, the members published a Literary Review, made up of contributions of Ashland High students.

A banquet, held at the Ashland Junior High, preceded the induction ceremony for new members. Linda Wells, president, presided at the induction. Lonna Baize and Claudia Everett assisted.

Lettermen Stage Annual Initiation

As a tribute to their outstanding athletic ability, those boys who earned a letter in sports were initiated into Lettermen's Club this year. During the school year, members sold booster buttons and sponsored a pancake dinner with the P.T.A.

Jan Susee and Ron Boyce sell a booster button.

Ashcan Contributors Revealed

Here are revealed to the world that witty group of students joined together to promote "satire in the state of Ashmark." "What students hath joined together, let no teacher put asunder."

Seminar on Humanities Instituted at AHS

Under the sponsorship of the Jack County Able and Gifted Student Study, a pilot program of the study of humanities was instituted at Ashland High this year. The group with Mrs. Margaret Zwick, faculty leader, met once a week to study art, music, and literature centered on topics of universal appeal. Interested students volunteered for the study group. A faculty committee made the final selection

At their annual initiation for sophomores, the G.R.A. upperclassmen Janice Hassell and Beverly Hartford administered the "airplane ride" to Margie Rucker.

Three year Flag Girls Barbara Lawrence, Billie Jean Collins, Bev Hartford, Sandy Roberts, and Nola Nielson accompanied the band to San Francisco.

Under the successful leadership of Bev Hartford, head Flag Girl, the Flag Girls presented many fine performances at school functions.

Girls' League Presents Scholarship

All AHS girls belong to Girls' League. Each year the League sponsors two social events, the Christmas Ball and Twirp Season. A candy sale provides money for scholarships for a senior girl. Barbara Barry received a hundred dollar scholarship this year.

"Checkmate!" Shouts Bill

This year's Chess Club, under the guidance of Chuck Calhoun, added a new innovation to give the Chess Club more life. During the year, our Chess Club made the initial move to start an inter-scholastic chess match. The tournament failed to flourish, but club presidents from other schools have voiced high hopes for a tournament next year. However, there was an intramural tourney which was won by junior Bill Gilliland.

Members are, Seated: Chuck Calhoun, Bill Gilliland. Standing: Barbara Lawrence, Doree Woodell, Kathy Tilford, Margie Rucker, Larry Turner, and Kathy Rucker.

F.T.A. Encourages Future Teachers

Any student interested in becoming a teacher is eligible to join Future Teachers of America. This club attempts to introduce students to the teaching profession by sponsoring speakers and discussions. Members are: Kneeling, Diane Fieguth, Wendy Weller, Linda Leigh, Marcy Tretsven. Second row: Sandy Hamilton, Billie Jean Collins, Jody MacCollister, Linda Weber, Nancy Latimer, Doree Woodell, Carolyn Harmon, Barbara Lawrence, Paula Prescott, advisor, Mrs. Susee. Third row: Joyce Elmquist, Dorothy Hunter, Betty Stevenson, Lloyd Stone, Linda Flood, Barbara Barry.

I.R.L. Delegates Attend State Conference

Welcoming Ali Saner and learning about foreign countries were the two major aims of the International Relations League. Several of the members also attended the state conference this year. Members are, Seated: Connie Felger, Charles Hillstad. Standing: Diane Williams, Jon Roberson, Bruce Bamforth, Ali Saner, Chuck Calhoun, John Purves, Sami Everett, Jim Mayo.

Thespians Produce a Variety of Plays

One of the many clubs of Ashland High School is Thespians. Future members must accumulate 10 points to be admitted. These points may be earned by participating in many different phases of dramatic activity, such as serving on make-up, stagecraft, play casts, and various committees necessary for the promotion of plays.

Cloma Zupan, Rhea Lisonbee, Jon Roberson, Sami Everett, Craig Pennington, Jim Mayo, and John Purves made up the cast for the one-act play, "The Ugly Duckling."

Thespian members are: seated, Paula Prescott, president; Claudia Everett, vice-president; Jane Hennick, point recorder. Standing: Mrs. Susee, Jim Mayo, Cloma Zupan, Ed Rhodes, Sami Everett, Dave Mott, Rhea Lisonbee, Barbara Barry, and Carol Bjork, secretary-treasurer.

Service Club Formed this Year

To provide art services for the student body and teachers, students organized the Art Service Corps. In addition to staging an anti-litter campaign, this organization also helps the other clubs make posters for Pep Week and club projects. Also, the members assist the teachers with their bulletin boards. Members are, Standing: Claudia Everett, Sami Everett, Margie Rucker, Sue Chappell, Mollie Warthen, Janice Canady, Julia Knies, Rhonda Rhodes, Barbara Van Brunt. Seated: Billie Bowen, Joyce Elmquist, Linda Lou Bowen.

Grizzly Knights Perform Services for School

In addition to sweeping down the gym floor during basketball season, Grizzly Knights also park cars at school functions and patrol the grounds during football games. Members are Ed Rhodes, Brian McCormick, Jay Feagan, Gerald Brown, and Bob Lawrence.
